

ITT is a proven supplier of GPS payloads, with 35 years of experience. Our systems have been on every GPS satellite ever launched. We've had 100% mission success – accumulating over 500 years of on-orbit life. And today, building on our proven platforms, we're developing new cost-effective payload, receiver and control solutions to dramatically improve the performance of GPS III and future systems. So pilots and all other GPS users can stay the course safely. Visit ssd.itt.com/gps.
